After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other Foreign countries. Caveats Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

THE CAPITAL OF NEW BRUNSWICK

FREDERICTON, Aug 16, 1874

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

This little city in the land of cheap gloves, silk umbrellas and open bars, at which the practice is large, is situated upon the west bank of the St. John river—a noble river that takes its rise far up in the State of Maine, and empties itself into the sea, in the Province of N. B., giving its name to the commercial metropolis at its mouth. The river is the largest and longest north of the Hudson, and flows on and on through intervals ladened with verdure and beautiful in their broad acres of grass and grain.

I called, this afternoon, to pay my respects to Governor Wilmot, whom I had met before, and found him in his library, which reminded me in its first impression, of the study of Sir Walter Scott, at Abbottsford. The Governor has a place of nine acres in extent, artistically laid out in walks, with arbors and groves and shrubbery and beds of flowers. He has a passion for flowers, and a gem of a place. It would be almost worth going to Fredricton to see it and him, if you were sure he would throw in for an half hour the twinkle of his eyes in showing you its beauties, and add a story or two at the gate upon leaving.

Our landlord at the Queens, kindly drove me down the river, less than half a mile, to a place built by Benedict Arnold after his treason and flight from the United States. It is a two story brown house, looking out upon the river and commanding fine view of the opposite shore and country. It is said he resided here awhile, engaged in commercial pursuits,—a home it must have been without the sweets of home—its occupant with his life blighted and without a country or friends.

But it is pleasant to an American with the stain of the rebellion upon us, to remember that until this sad phase of our national development, notwithstanding all the hardships and sufferings and temptations of the war of the Revolution, Arnold was the only officer in that long and severe ordeal who abandoned the side first embraced in the contest to turn his sword upon his companions in arms.

Next below the Arnold place, which Provincials are careful to remember never to have known, is the residence of Judge Fisher of the Supreme Court, whom I did myself the pleasure to call upon, and he, too, like Governor Wilmot, has a passion for flowers, and has charming grounds. His banks of silver leafed geraniums with plants of other hues to give a contrast, were most beautiful to look upon. A bed of carnations was the finest I ever saw.

Other gardens and grounds in the city to which I had not the entree, if I had had the time to visit them, I was told are very fine. Indeed, the flower garden at the Government House—a large stone mansion upon the bank of the river at the upper end of the city,—though neglected a little in favor of the vegetable garden, one of the finest, it must be, in the Province, is worth many miles of travel to see, and if you ever see it, please observe how charmingly the wide river makes a background to it, presenting a picture in front lovely as flowers and garden and buildings can make.

Next door to my hotel, Joseph Mayshrall, Esq., has an extensive collection of ancient coins and other curiosities which he was kind enough to invite me to look at. I regret there was not time to look at them more carefully, and more in detail. Among others I noticed a silver dollar, crown of Charles II, one like it was sold in London, I was told for £20. Also a Maximilian dollar, said, to be rare. A large silver medal of George III, given to the chiefs of Indian tribes, who fought for the British against the Americans in the war of 1812. This medal discloses, perhaps a fact and a closeness that Parliamentary journals may not have blazoned very prominently upon its records,—also a pine tree shilling,—also continental, confederate, Provincial and many other kinds of old and curious paper money.

This "pine tree shilling"—hence "pine tree state"—has the word "Masathusets" on its face—they lisped a little at the "mint howse" in 1662 perhaps, and were sparing of letters in their orthography. Upon the reverse is a tree in the centre and date 1662. The story is told of the master of the mint that he took toll in kind for coining the shillings and grew rich, so that he promised his daughter a dowry in pine tree shillings which should weigh as much as herself. So when he gave her in marriage to Samuel Sewal she was "dumped" into the scale and the shillings were "poured" into the other until the scales balanced.

Among other objects of interest he has a copy of the Ulster county Gazette published at Kingston, (Ulster Co.) by Samuel Freer & Son—in which is an account of the death and burial of Washington, and the message of John Adams announcing the sad event to Congress. Dec. 20, 1799, it says "on Wednesday last, the mortal part of Washington, the Great Father of his country and the Friend of man, was consigned to the tomb with solemn honors and funeral pomp." On the ornament at the head of the coffin was inscribed "Surgras Indictum," about the middle of the coffin "Gloria Deo," on the silver plate "General George Washington departed this life on 14th Dec., 1799 aet. 68."

And in the same paper is an advertisement that sounds harshly upon our ears at the present day. It is "For sale the half of a new mill with convenient place for buildings &c., and also a stout, healthy, active negro wench. Any person inclined to purchase, may know the particulars by applying to John Schoonmaker, Jr., at Rochester, Nov. 13th, 1799."

The world moves. But these gleanings and incidents of my few hours' stay here to-day, are not worth your editorial notice. So please burn them. But this much is true, that this is an interesting country and every way worthy the attention of the tourist and if it is somewhat an untravelled land to its own citizens, so much the keener may be the relish to strangers in exploring its wilds, its rivers, its history. B

AN INQUISITIVE DRUMMER CHASTISED.—The story is told of a drummer putting up lately at a hotel in Seymour, Indiana. After retiring to his rest, excited somewhat with liquor, he heard from a room across the hall bursts of female merriment, which excited his curiosity. Slyly opening his door he brought a chair, climbed up on it, and stuck his head in at the transom of the room from whence there was a sound of revelry by night. What he saw does not appear; but certain it is that he became the victim of an unfortunate accident in the tumbling over of the chair, leaving him hanging in a half choked condition, with his head inside. The room happened to belong to a husband and wife, and the former having a good riding-whip at hand, administered to the inquisitive prisoner a thrashing never to be forgotten.

Five masked burglars overpowered the bank watchman at Ansonia, Conn., Tuesday night, and attempted to rob the bank, but failed.

The directors of the Portland and Rochester railroad propose to make a proposition to the city government to pay the interest on the city bonds in aid of the road for two years at least, when they are confident that the earnings of the road will not only pay its current interest, but provide a sinking fund to extinguish the loans necessary to meet the interest during the period named.

Eighteen divorces were granted at the recent term of the Supreme court at Augusta. In the case of J. M. Ingraham vs. Horace Ingraham, the following note was appended: Temperaments not congenial. Monday evening fire was discovered in the large three story tenement block on River street, in Biddeford. There were twelve barrels of kerosene in the cellar, and the flames got such headway that they could not be controlled, so the building was destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin, as shavings and kindling wood were found piled up in one corner of the building.

Sunday night a party of five young men in Portland got into a quarrel, during which one of the party pulled out a piece of iron fence and struck Thomas Quigley two fearful blows on the head, knocking him senseless. After the fight Quigley was picked up by his companions, taken to his house on Washington street, and carried to his room, and without notifying the family, left there. During the night his mother heard his groans, and going to his room, found him insensible and covered with blood. The police have arrested two men, Thayer and Flynn, who acknowledge being in the fight, but claim not to know who used the iron bar.

WHY SHE COULDN'T SLEEP. At one of our quiet summer resorts the other night a lady of a delicate physique was complaining that for years she had been unable to sleep without taking some narcotic. Those who heard the remark were at first tempted to condemn her for having frittered away her strength in the pleasures of society, until her story, quietly and modestly told, showed that she had been through scenes of trial and suffering, that might affect the stoutest. The wife of a United States naval officer, it was her fate a few years since to be on her way to join her husband at some port on the Pacific coast of South America at the time of the great earthquakes and tidal waves that were so destructive to life and property upon that coast. Her ship had but just dropped anchor in a Peruvian harbor when the tidal wave came that wrenched her from her mooring and swept her over a cliff forty feet high into an inner harbor, while before the eyes of our heroine, who was seated on the deck, the populous city fell down as if the block creation of a child. Fortunately the ship, unlike its compeers in the harbor, which were many of them dashed to pieces had steam enough up to get out to sea with the receding wave, though dry land seemed to pursue her for a space in the reflux. Proceeding down the coast that night, town after town was found to have been swallowed up by the earthquake. How for weeks this woman in a strange land, where she did not speak the language, sought her husband, not knowing whether he was alive or dead, and how he at a distant port longed and prayed for and at last found her when she had almost given him up how they met soon to part as he was again called away for months—here is a theme for a novelist. The nervous strain on each has left ineffaceable marks on their lives. Is it any wonder that even in the soothing influence of this glorious sea air sleep comes but slowly to the eyes that never close but to see pictured anew the great rush inland of a mighty ocean and to hear the crashing of stone and timber and the shrieks of despairing humanity as a great city is swallowed up in earth to "the music of many waters?"

Mischief in the Air

We cannot analyze the aerial poisons that produce epidemic and intermittent diseases, but the valuable discoveries which have been made in vegetable pharmacy enable us to counteract their morbific influence. The most powerful known antidote to every species of malaria is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a pure botanical medicine in which the finest antiseptics, tonics, alteratives and stimulants of the vegetable kingdom are skilfully and effectively combined. At seasons of the year when the atmosphere is surcharged with miasma, and whenever the specific virus of any infectious disease is supposed to be present in the air, this famous corrective should be taken regularly as a protective. All who choose to observe this precaution may bid defiance to intermittent and remittent fevers, and in fact to all disorders generated by foul exhalations or impure water. aug20

Republican Nominations.

FOR GOVERNOR

NELSON DINGLEY, JR.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES TO CONGRESS

First District—JOHN H. BURLEIGH.
Second District—WILLIAM P. FRYE.
Third District—JAMES G. BLAINE.
Fourth District—SAMUEL F. HERSEY.
Fifth District—EUGENE HALE.

Class Conventions.

The Republicans in the several Representative Districts in the County of Penobscot, will hold Class Conventions for the purpose of nominating candidates for Representatives to the Legislature as follows:

Class composed of Charleston, Bradford and Lagrange at the Town House in Lagrange on Saturday, September 5th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

Class composed of Lincoln, [illegible], &c., at Stratton & Edwards' Hotel in Mattawamkeag, on Tuesday, September 1st, at 10 o'clock A. M.

THE COUNTY NOMINATIONS

We congratulate the members of the Convention on the nominees and the Republicans of Penobscot County upon the strong and acceptable ticket put forward by our assembled delegates at City Hall yesterday. The names are well known throughout the County, and will command the respect and confidence of all. The good natured rivalry [illegible] some of the nominations failed to interrupt the harmony of the occasion, and the heartiness with which the decisions were ratified by the unsuccessful candidates affords the best possible promise of those united exertions which will swell the Republican victory in September. It is with the utmost satisfaction that we call upon the members of our noble party to organize and labor for the largest possible majorities in favor of the following excellent ticket —

FOR SENATORS
Jacob W. Palmer, of Bangor,
George Cutler, of Medway,
[illegible] Morrison, of Corinth,
[illegible] Thurlough, of Newburgh
FOR SHERIFF
[illegible] Gerrard, of Levant
FOR REGISTER OF PROBATE
Ambrose C. Flint, of Bangor
FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER
Willard L. Ferguson, of Dixmont.

Three of our candidates for the State Senate have already demonstrated their faithfulness and ability in the positions for which they are nominated and our candidate for Register of Probate has earned a renomination by an efficiency of service that has been recognized throughout the County. The vacancy in our Senatorial delegation caused by the expiration of the successive terms of Hon. Charles Shaw of Dexter, who has been one of the most active and useful members, will be ably filled by Mr. Thurlough, a gentleman of [illegible] character and sound judgment. Our candidate for Sheriff has already won public approval by the zeal and energy displayed in discharging the duties of County Commissioner. He will command a hearty support in [illegible] and nowhere, we are convinced, will he receive more cordial support than among the numerous friends of his worthy [illegible] nomination. The County [illegible] will find in Mr. Ferguson an [illegible] coadjutor, in whose [illegible] public interests will be carefully guarded. Individually the ticket is unexceptionable, [illegible] as a whole [illegible] will thoroughly [illegible] the approval of the Republicans of the [illegible] County.

[illegible] interest manifested by the delegates and the unwavering [illegible] to the party which has accomplished so much for the State and the Nation [illegible] and timely address of the [illegible] Hon. D. S. [illegible], of Corinth, fitly [illegible] the spirit of the Convention and of the Republicans of this county in expressing [illegible] to the principles of [illegible] and integrity, which constitute [illegible] to an intelligent popular [illegible] exposed the trickery by which the Democrats of this County sought [illegible] Free Trade declaration [illegible] State platform and pointed out [illegible] to our farmers and other [illegible] Republican majority in September will seal with unmistakable [illegible] attempt to sacrifice our home [illegible] and agricultural interests in [illegible] prosperity.

The Convention was well attended, comprising many of the most influential Republicans of the county and the members have [illegible] their homes full of determination [illegible] majorities for every candidate [illegible] ticket.

[illegible] would provoke us [illegible] from the purpose to take no notice whatever of a disreputable and scurrilous [illegible] sheet in this city, but we cannot refrain from [illegible] the brutal and [illegible] personal attack made yesterday upon a gentleman who has long been [illegible] as one of the most prominent and [illegible] citizens of Bangor and the State. [illegible] the indisputable nature of the [illegible] we have only to remember that the [illegible] abuse and the creature who [illegible] by some inscrutable decree of Providence to scandalize the best people and outrage the highest convictions of this community for years, were recently weighed in the balance by the intelligent citizens of this District and that the latter ignominiously kicked the beam. He seeks for the weapons of revenge in the gutter, where we leave him.

NOTE. The officious person, who is again injuring the prospects of the Treat's Falls dam enterprise by a noisy and abusive championship, is informed that the omission of the word "solid" from an extract from Mills' report given in a recent letter of "Engineer," occurred in putting the article in type, the quotation being literally correct in the manuscript furnished us. We assume the responsibility for this error with the slightest possible regard for the wrath of the individual referred to.

The Ellsworth American laments the vicissitudes of fame on finding the names and residences of the Hancock Senatorial candidates, Messrs. Joseph T. Hinckley, of Bluehill and Lucilius A. Emery, of Ellsworth, somewhat mixed in a paragraph in our columns. As we suspect that other papers have been equally careless, the above is given as the correct thing.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS. It is reported that the Brussels Congress abandoned the Russian programme. The delegates have transmitted for ratification to their respective Governments the resolutions adopted, which merely eulogize the humane provisions of the Geneva Convention.

What is the highest market price for real, gushing, high toned love-letters of the most spicy and exotic type? That is the latest journalistic conundrum. The Chicago Tribune, which has gone into the business to the extent of thirty-two columns of a single issue, ought to be able to tell; and several of our New York contemporaries are anxious on the subject.—[N. Y. Tribune.

REVERTED RAILWAY LAND GRANTS.

The Republican Congressional Committee have prepared a statement from the books of the General Land Office, showing the number of acres of land granted to railroads which have reverted to the Government under the conditions of their grant and the recent decision of the Attorney-General. The lands will soon be again opened for settlement. They are distributed as follows:

	Miles.	Acres.
Jacksonville, Pensacola and Florida Railroad	160	600,000
Pensacola and Louisville Railroad	43	[illegible]
Alabama and Florida Railroad	150	374,000
Coosa and Tennessee Railroad	37	57,784
Mobile and Girard Railroad	140	180,000
North Louisiana and Texas Railroad	[illegible]	250,000
St. Croix and Lake Superior Railroad	220	1,150,000
Jackson Lansing and Saginaw Railroad	59	180,000
Total	885	3,105,791

It has long been held that lands that have once been granted to railroads could not revert to the national domain except by some subsequent legislation of Congress. This opinion was held by Joseph Wilson, the late Commissioner of the Land Office, and has not been reversed until within a few days, when Attorney General Williams, in response to an inquiry of the Secretary of the Interior, decided that subsequent action of Congress was not necessary, and that original grants were to be interpreted in accordance with the real intent of Congress, and not by the principle of the common law as to conditions subsequent.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

In Missouri, after 1876, every voter must be able to read and write. The date for Florida is 1880.

William H. Trescott, one of South Carolina's original secessionists, announces himself as a candidate for Congress in Mr. Elliott's district.

A large majority of the delegates to the Kansas Republican State Convention, thus far elected, are in favor of the renomination of Gov. Osborn.

It is now authoritatively known that the Hon. R. B. Elliott, colored member from South Carolina, will not return to Congress, but will run for the Legislature in his own State, with a view to lead the reform movement there.

Some of the minor newspapers talk as if there was no difference in the quality of testimony. But Mr. Beecher's statement has character behind it, Tilton's has none, neither in himself nor in his supporters. That is what they say in Brooklyn.—[Hartford Courant.

The St. Louis Globe admonishes Senator Schurz that if he desires a re-election he must pull off his coat and go to work for the Republican party, first acknowledging that he "spoke under great excitement" in his harangues of two years ago.

General J. B. Kershaw, a leading South Carolina Conservative, has written a letter in which he declares that the question there is no longer one of Republicanism or Democracy, but that the struggle now is for an honest Government, in comparison with which party distinctions should go for nothing.

Concerning the Rhode Island State Constabulary, the Providence Journal asserts that the chief and all the assistants are men in whom the public have entire confidence. It says, further:

"Whatever may be the result, it can very safely be predicted that there will be no scandals such as have arisen in other States from charges of complicity with illegal selling by the special officers appointed to prevent it. If the law should prove as effectual as its most sanguine friends expect, the people of the State will greatly rejoice."

THE BEECHER TILTON MATTER. In this week's Independent, Henry C. Bowen's paper, the Beecher Tilton scandal is made the subject of an editorial from which we make the following extract:—

"At last, after a weary delay, he has presented his own statement, and all those who have loved and respected him—and who has not?—have at last had occasion to rejoice that he was able to present so full, so circumstantial, and so powerful a defense. He has taken pains to meet at full length every charge and proof against him, and not only to explain it as consistent with his innocence, but to hurl back on his accusers charges which they will find it very necessary to meet. We are heartily glad that he has been able to throw so much light on this dark case, and if, as we trust, his defense shall commend itself to the charitable good sense of the Christian public, which is unwilling to think evil of so useful a religious teacher, it will be the better for sound morals and for the faith which we all desire to keep in established character."

The Springfield Union, speaking of the absurd complaint of some people that Mr. Beecher's statement does not prove his innocence, says:

"It is astonishing that any part of the American public, which is in general so well versed in the common principles of law, should have in this case transferred the burden of proof from Tilton to Beecher, and called on the latter to prove his innocence—i. e., to disprove what Tilton has not succeeded in proving. As it is, Beecher has been able to make out a strong defence, a much stronger one than persons thus accused, however innocent, are generally able to make, a much stronger one than the public had a right to expect. And now some people say that, because he has not made a mathematical demonstration of a negative, they will not believe it."

F. D. Moulton, with the assistance of Ben Butler, whom the New York Tribune calls the "trickiest criminal lawyer in the country," is patching up his statement, and it may be expected that the sharp chap who was rebuked by Congress for intercepting private telegrams, will twist the documents given him into the worst shape for Beecher and the best for his client. The case is generally desperate when Butler is called in, but trickery will not avail with the public in this matter.

THE JERSEY CITY TRAGEDY. The excitement in Jersey City in reference to the death of Miss Pomeroy is very intense. Her ante mortem deposition gains universal credence, and the reverend seducer is bitterly denounced in all quarters. Mrs. Miller, the girl's aunt, with whom she lived, says that, shortly before her death, Miss Pomeroy confided to her and her husband the following statement:

"One night, after I found I was in trouble, and after the matter had all been talked over between Mr. Glendenning and myself, he had assured me that everything would be made right, meaning, as I supposed, that he would marry me. Mr. Glendenning came into the parlor where I was seated by the door. He approached the table, and, after a few pleasant words had passed, he said to me, 'Mary, have you pen and ink? I want you to write something for me. You know what a scrape I am in. I want you to shield me, for, if this thing gets out, I am a ruined man.' He then began to dictate something for me to write, and I refused to do it, because it was false. He then drew a revolver from his pocket, and told me I must write it. I was very much frightened, and all seemed dark and blank to me. I wrote whatever he told me, but what it was I cannot tell, except that it was something to shield him and set him right before the public and church. I signed my name to the paper, and it is now in his possession."

Mrs. Miller supposes the paper alluded to is the evidence upon which Glendenning mainly relied for his defence. Mrs. Miller also said he was in the habit of calling three or four times a week, and remaining until the small hours of the morning. Upon leaving he was in the habit of kissing Mary, and calling her his little wife. Her funeral was to take place on Thursday.

NAVAL TORPEDO PRACTICE. A despatch from Newport, R. I., says the torpedo boat Intrepid, the wonder in naval circles, has achieved a success which any government might well be proud of. Proceeding to the outer harbor with the old schooner Uncas in tow, she moored her a short distance off. Immediately the spars were run out from the Intrepid's bow, and the electric manipulator was touched, which was no sooner done than the entire bow of the schooner was blown thirty feet into the air.

This was followed by another torpedo which finished the work and filled the air completely with splinters and smoke. The spars were pushed out over the bow of the Intrepid, and the torpedoes, of which there were two, containing 100 pounds of gunpowder each, were allowed to rest on the bottom. The spars were about 45 feet in length, and were placed at an angle of forty degrees. The success of the Intrepid will doubtless be the means of adopting the spars for the purpose for which the vessel is intended, as the original plan of running the torpedo loaded beam from an opening under the ram has been abandoned upon the advice of Mr. Hanscomb, the Naval Constructor, although it exposed the men to less danger than the other.

Dr. SCHENCK'S
Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.

These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of Consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution.

Other remedies advertised as cures for Consumption, probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which, of course, must make a cure impossible.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium. It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. These are the only means by which Consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious they are the only genuine cure for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full directions.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, and at the Quincy House, Boston, on the following Wednesdays, June 10th and 24th, July 8th and 22d, and August 5th and 19th.

The Winthrop
[illegible]
Simple and Durable in its Construction. As Easily Managed as a Parlor stove; Large Radiation, Entire Freedom from Coal and Dust. Does not heat the Cellar.

Manufactured by DIGHTON FURNACE CO.

In the construction of the Winthrop Hot Air Furnace it has been made a study to avoid the difficulties and annoyances too often found in Furnaces. Pure warm air, free from gas and dust, is the great desideratum sought. Without enlarging upon the important matter of warming and ventilating houses, about which so much has been written of late, we desire to call your attention to the New Wrought Iron Winthrop Heater, as possessing the requisites for a healthful and economical apparatus.

The base and fire pot of the Winthrop, is made of heavy cast iron, the fire pot lined with brick, so that the current of cold air as it comes in from the base does not come in contact with red hot plates, destroying its vitality, but is delivered into the hot air chamber pure and healthful.

The Radiator is made of the best Wrought Iron, as thoroughly riveted as a steam boiler, making the escape of gas and dust an impossibility; thus securing what cannot be guaranteed by any Cast Iron Furnace, with its many flues and joints, a healthful atmosphere.

The revertable flue insures the even distribution of heat over the whole furnace, leaving no part useless, thus making it the most powerful heater in the market. Another distinguishing feature of the Winthrop is the ease with which the flues can be cleaned out. This has been a serious difficulty with most furnaces, but has been entirely overcome in the Winthrop. The accumulation of soot and ashes in the flues can be thoroughly removed in a few minutes. The Winthrop has been thoroughly tested, and we invite all in want of a superior heating apparatus to an examination of its merits.

For sale by
W. H. PRITCHARD,
NOS. 3 AND 4, STATE ST., BANGOR.

Their goods are made expressly for them, and they spare no pains in getting the very best work in the market. They do not keep factory and job lots that are only half made, and of the poorest stock, but take pride and pleasure in selling their customers Boots and Shoes that are honestly and solidly made of the best material, and prefer rather to build their trade by so doing, than to drive it away by selling trash. They warrant their goods to be just what they represent them, and their prices as low as the lowest. They are sole Agents in this city for the celebrated BRISTOL work, for Ladies and Misses. These Boots are made on the McComber last, and are acknowledged to be superior in style, fit and finish to any in the market. Officer Fancy went for them, but succeeded in finding only one, whose name is Davis, and who picked up a stone, struck the officer twice, nearly pulled a handful of his beard out, and tried to bite him. It took about half an hour to patch up Davis' head before he was put in the lockup.

THE BAND CONTROVERSY. Mr Editor.—The Bangor Cornet Band wish the public to understand that they have taken no part in the controversy which has lately been going on in the Argus and Commercial concerning the comparative merits of the Bangor Band and Chandler's Band of Portland. The two bands have always been on excellent terms, and nothing has occurred to disturb in the least the warm friendship we feel for our Portland neighbors. We have always been treated "first class" in Portland, and trust that this newspaper controversy (which we have in vain tried to check) will not change the kindly feelings the musicians, and citizens generally, of Portland have exhibited towards our organization. A. D. HARLOW,
Leader B. C. B.

THE "ANNIE B." MURDERER. Our readers will perhaps remember the case of the man Robbins, who shipped on the British schooner "Annie B." at St. John last spring, and the second day out ran a-muck among the crew, beating them terribly and using a revolver on them, and afterwards took the boat and went ashore on Grand Menan, The vessel ran into Rockland, and the mate after being taken on shore died of his injuries. Robbins was arrested by a United States Marshal, taken to Portland, examined before the U. S. Commissioner and committed. The New Brunswick authorities endeavored to procure his extradition that he might be taken back and tried in the Province, but Attorney General Plaisted informs us that the authorities at Washington have decided that the offence is justiceable in our State Courts and will not grant the extradition Robbins will therefore be tried in Knox county, where the death of his victim occurred.

NOVEL CARRIAGE. We saw yesterday at Messrs. B. N. Thoms & Son's carriage manufactory the carriage they have just finished for the "Madbury Giant" or stone man recently exhibited in this city. The vehicle is of peculiar construction the body or box in which the "critter" is to be carried being very low, setting on a bent axle like the axle of a jigger, while the front axle is connected with it by "goose-necks" of iron which admit of the carriage being turned in its own length. The driver's seat is over and above the front axle. The carriage, though comparatively light in appearance, is exceedingly strong, as the weight of the "Giant" (some 1700 lbs) demands, and every part of it is thoroughly constructed of the best materials—all the work having been done in the establishment except the silver-plating, which was done by Mr. Thoms' son, Charles F. The carriage is elegantly painted, bearing on each side a picture of the "Giant" in the field in which he was dug up, surrounded by tasteful scroll-work. This decorative painting was executed by Mr. D. B. Head, and is a truly artistic piece of work. The carriage attracts many visitors by its novel shape and fine appearance.

THEATRE. Nannary & McDowell's theatre company, which has just closed a very successful season of fifteen weeks in St. John, opened in Norombega Hall last evening with Richard III. The audience was not large, as the evening promised to be stormy, and, besides, few people seemed to understand that this is not an ordinary company. Bangor has been imposed upon year after year by miserable itinerant troupes giving performances of the worst shades of wretchedness, until every company which appears is viewed with suspicion and distrust unless headed by such a name as Booth or Owens. It is a pleasant relief, therefore, when a good company visits the city, and we are confident that last evening's performance will insure full houses to Nannary & McDowell's party during the remainder of their stay—they were "tried and not found wanting."

Mr. Neil Warner, who heads the company, is a young English actor of great talent and ability, and his performance of "Richard" stamps him a thorough, conscientious and painstaking artist. We hope to see more of him in the Shakespearean drama before he leaves the city. He was well supported by Mr. Shirley France as "Buckingham," Mr. McDowell as "Richmond," Mr. Owen as "King Henry," and the other members of the company.

Miss Rachel Noah, who appeared last evening as "Lady Anne," is a charming actress and made an excellent impression, though more at home in comedy, perhaps, than in tragedy; we shall see to-night. Miss Jamison gave an excellent rendering of the "Queen" last evening, though a little inclined to overdo. Miss Young, Miss Chippendale and little Miss Rosa were well up in their parts—the latter, especially, who displayed a wonderful precocity.

To-night the company will appear in the musical drama "The Brigands" and the extravaganza "Pocahontas," and a very enjoyable entertainment is anticipated. These pieces will bring out the good points of Prof Muller's orchestra, which gave us some excellent music last night. The Professor is a first class violinist, and his solo last evening gained him an enthusiastic encore.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

SECOND CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL REUNION AT BUCKSPORT.

The annual reunion of the Second Maine Cavalry Association occurred at Bucksport on Wednesday, according to announcement. The weather was delightful The leaden clouds of the evening before that were wheeling above us like trained columns of soldiers, during the night, like Arabs, struck their tents and silently stole away. The village, nestling amid the plenitude of foliage, with here and there "the old flag" streaked with light, flashing and waving amid the green of leaves, was indeed an inviting rendezvous for the assembling of the veterans of our country's battles.

At an early hour the streets were alive with crowds of eager spectators, anxious to catch the first glimpse of our brave guests. Expectation ran high. Many and wild were the conjectures of the credulous youth. Even the unsophisticated inhabitants of the "rooral deestricts" expected to see squadrons of mounted men, "booted and spurred," impatient to parade our streets. But the arrival of the boat disappointed the young man who saw visions and the old man who dreamed dreams, and, instead of seeing the "wild hussar" ready to mount at the bugle's call, they saw only some seventy-five orderly men quietly landing to the excellent music of the Belfast Cornet Band. Here the veterans were met by Torrent Engine Company, and their old commander, Gen. A. B. Spurling. The column was formed in the following order:

Belfast Cornet Band
Torrent Engine Company.
Second Maine Veteran Cavalry.

and, after marching through the principal streets, halted and broke column at Parker's Hall, where a most bountiful collation was served at 1 o'clock.

THE HALL

was most tastefully decorated. From the ceiling drooped graceful festoons of bunting, while the side-walls were adorned with pictures, trimmed with flags and shields bearing the names of the battles in which the regiment had taken part. Across the front wall, in handsome rustic letters, hung the motto: "Welcome, Veteran Second Maine Cavalry". Beneath this motto was a large picture of a white-marble monument bearing this inscription: "Sacred to the Memory of Three Hundred Brave Dead, who Died that their Country might Live. Second Maine Cavalry." The design was beautiful and impressive The tables were abundantly laden with the fruitage of the hands of Bucksport's lovely daughters. Here it is just to say that the gallant soldier was defeated and captured. Had several columns of rebels stood before him, no doubt he would have "gone for them," but to be surrounded by a fair enemy with jaunty caps and pink and white, victory is sure.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

After the collation the Association adjourned to Torrent Engine Hall for a business meeting, at which time the reports of various officers were made and the following officers elected for the ensuing year

General A. B. Spurling, of Bucksport, President.

N. H. Martin, M. S. C of Orono Capt A. B. Mathews and Sergt J. M. Stuckley, of Warren, Vice Presidents.

S. C. Small, of Boston, Secretary.

Capt. J. B. Roberts, of Boston, Treasurer.

The following corresponding Secretaries were also elected

Company A—Capt. Warren Mansur, Cambridgeport, Mass.
Company B—A. M. Scott, Manchester, N H.
Company D—L T. Albee, Wiscasset, Me
Company E—J. N. Brown, Rockland, Me.
Company F—W. H. Lurgin, Dexter, Me.
Company G—F A Fuller, South Boston, Mass.
Company H—Lieut. D. Simpson, Charlestown, Mass.
Company I—E F. Moore, Waltham, Mass.
Company K—Lieut. A. C. Emery, Skowhegan, Me.
Company L—W. H. Moody, Liberty, Me.
Company M—C D. Chapman, Orrington, Me.

It was voted to hold the next reunion at Bath, on the first Wednesday of September, 1875.

ORATION AND POEM.

Immediately after the business meeting, a large audience assembled at Lyceum Hall to listen to a poem by Capt. John H. Roberts an oration by Col. Eben Hutchinson. Both were stirring and eloquent productions, reviving old memories, treating of incidents in camp, bivouac and battle, bristling with witty points, and were received with enthusiasm.

THE BANQUET.

The event of the day was the banquet in the evening at Parker's Hall. It was a "feast of reason and flow of soul." Gen. Spurling, in an eloquent speech, introduced Col. Hutchinson as President and Quartermaster S. C. Small as Toast Master for the evening. The following were the Toasts.

The President of the United States—the Soldier President, equal to any emergency in time of war and fully equal in time of peace.

Responded to by Senator Hamlin.

The State of Maine—God bless our Mother, the Pine Tree State, may her boughs ever wave in eternal green.

Responded to by Hon. Eugene Hale.

The Citizens of Bucksport—their generous hospitality is surpassed only by the bewitching beauty of their ladies.

Responded to by Rufus Buck, Esq

The Army of the United States—our sure defense in time of war.

Responded to by Hon. Mr. Emery.

The Navy—As we defended our country's honor on the land, so they as gallantly defended it on the sea.

A letter read from Rear Admiral H. K. Thatcher.

The Ladies of Bucksport—the fairest and most bountiful of commissaries; may their issue strengthen the guards of the nation.

Responded to by V. P Wardwell, Esq.

After the banquet the floors were cleared and a dance closed the reunion. The "boys" expressed themselves highly pleased with the citizens of Bucksport generally and the ladies in particular, each feeling well paid for the journey and his pains taken to grasp once more the hands of old comrades.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

AUGUST (CRIMINAL) TERM

HON JOHN A PETERS, Justice Presiding
EZRA C. BRETT, Esq , Clerk.
JASPER HUTCHINGS, Esq , County Att'y.

Thursday, Aug 20th. State vs. Edward Tebbetts; indicted as a common seller of intoxicating liquors. Evidence appearing to be sufficient the jury rendered a verdict of guilty. J. F. Godfrey.

Tebbetts also plead guilty on a search and seizure process, and paid the fine and costs.

Benj. Miller plead guilty to a charge of drunkenness brought here by appeal, and having lain in jail some six weeks by reason of his inability to get bail, the court sentenced him to one day more in county jail. Kimball.

State vs Patrick McAloon, appellant, search and seizure process, evidence failed to satisfy Verdict not guilty. Varney

State vs. intoxicating liquors claimed by Chas. E. Blackwell. The liquors were contained in the original packages, to wit four cases of Scotch whiskey imported from St John, N. B. Blackwell claimed them as not liable to seizure under the statute. The court ruled that if the liquors were kept for unlawful sale by Blackwell they would be liable to be seized, and the evidence being satisfactory on this point the jury returned a verdict for the State. The case is to be carried to the Full Court to settle the law in relation to imported liquors. Wilson & Woodard.

BANGOR POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUDGE GOODENOW.

Thursday, August 20th. State vs. Patrick Curran; drunkenness; fined $5 and costs; paid.

NEWS BREVITIES

Marshal Bazaine is going to England.

A junk shop on Federal street, Boston, was burned Wednesday; loss $4000.

A fire at Shreveport, La., Wednesday, destroyed $30,000 worth of property.

The official decision of the referee in the Collyer-Edwards fight is that the latter won.

A block of wooden buildings in Dedham, Mass., was burned Wednesday morning; loss $5000.

The Democrats of the first Vermont district have nominated Homer W. Heaton for Congress.

Four Salt Lake City policemen have been held to bail to answer to the charge of assault on election day.

Forest fires are raging along the Jackson, Lansing & Saginaw railroad, Michigan, and heavy fires are reported near Standish.

It is reported that four thousand Indians attacked Custar's expedition on the 15th inst. and were repulsed with heavy loss.

It is understood that the New York court of appeals will decide at the September term that the statute legislating old police justices out of office is unconstitutional.

Dr Charles Gray and deputy sheriff Richards, of New Orleans, fought a duel Tuesday, with revolvers, at fifteen paces. Both fell at the third fire and immediately expired.

The child in the possession of one Durgin and a Mrs. Cole, who belong in Pittsburg, Penn , but are now in Odell, Ill., proves to be rightfully with them, and not the abducted Ross child, as was supposed.

Four men entered Pease's oil establishment in Buffalo, N. Y, Wednesday, and while three engaged the attention of those in charge the fourth took from a desk drawer notes, currency, etc , to the amount of about $13,000.

On the 16th inst , while on escort duty near Old Camp Brown, Wyoming, private Chas Green of Co. L, 3d Cavalry, killed private Mahoney and wounded two other soldiers and then deserted. A reward is offered for his capture.

Two intoxicated men entered the field of one Storrs, near Lowell, Mass., Wednesday, and tore down a piece of fence, when they were attacked by Storrs, who was mowing at the time, and one of them, James Moran, was frightfully wounded.

The Tennessee Democratic convention met at Nashville Wednesday and adopted a platform which, among other things, denounces the supplemental civil rights bill as "A palpable violation of the Constitution, intended to vex, harrass, oppress and degrade the people of the Southern States, which we should resist by all legal and constitutional means." After fourteen ballots Judge James I Porter was nominated as candidate for Governor.

John T. Morris, deputy sheriff of Collins county, Texas, announces that he killed a notorious character named James H. Reed on the sixth inst., and that before dying Reed stated that he was the leader of the band that committed the Iowa and Gad's Hill (Mo) robberies, the St. Genevive bank robbery and also asserted that he robbed the Hot Springs (Ark.) and Austin (Tex) stages, and committed several robberies in Arizona, Nevada, Colorado and Oregon. He would not give the names of his confederates.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—At the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, Hon. E M. Paxson was nominated for Judge of the Supreme Court; A. G. Olmstead, for Lieut. Governor; Harrison Allen, for Auditor General; R. B. Heath, for Secretary of Internal Affairs. Resolutions were adopted favoring protection, opposing land grants, favoring cheap transportation, encouraging manufactures, and urging Congressmen to support measures in favor of the Centennial.

The resolutions also attribute in a great measure the panic and slow recovery therefrom to the reduction of the tariff and consequent over-importation, and severely condemn the attempt to establish free trade through the reciprocity treaty with Canada as an effort to accomplish by the treaty-making power alone that which belongs of right to the popular branch of the Government, and put redress out of the people's reach for twenty-one years to come. The Democratic party is accused of endeavoring to bring on a war of races in the South with the design of depriving a portion of her citizens of their rights.

The enforcement of civil rights to colored citizens is urged on Congress as an imperative duty; free banking is indorsed, the aggregate volume of the currency to be regulated by the necessities of the people and the recognized laws of trade, a return to specie payment at the earliest practicable day is urged; soldiers and sailors are remembered with gratitude, Gov. Hartranft is presented as Pennsylvania's candidate for the Presidential nomination of the Republican party in 1877, and a resolution indorsing a third term was strongly voted down.

The Tennessee Democracy at their State Convention call for the abolition of the national bank system and payment of Government bonds with paper money.

The Bridgton News says it has "never made a declaration favorable to Governor Perham or any other Senatorial candidate directly or indirectly.

It is not probable that a full statement of all the claims against the District Government will be ready to be presented to Congress at the commencement of the next session. Some three thousand claims have been already presented against the late Board of Public Works. The Sinking Fund Commissioners of the District are now paying the interest on the improvement bonds, due July 1st. Comptroller Taylor, of the Board of Audit, made the first issue of the new 3.65 District bonds, Wednesday. These were four bonds of $10,000 each.

BEECHER AND JEFF. DAVIS. The Louisville Courier Journal publishes a letter from Henry Ward Beecher, pronouncing the reported sermon, which has been widely published, advising the hanging of Jeff Davis, 1865, an unblushing forgery. He says

"Not only did I never utter or write such miserable stuff, but the whole world knows that, while many were clamoring for some sacrifice or victim, I everywhere and always opposed with intense earnestness the shedding a drop of blood, and resisted with all my might influences which sought the execution of Jefferson Davis. It is not the first shameful forgery upon me which has been circulated in the South and West. I am so heartily desirous of the re establishment of good will between all who have been alienated, and I so much value the good will of my fellow-citizens of the South, that I step aside from my usual course, and make a reply to this slander."

A STORM BEATEN POST OFFICE The smallest Post Office in the world is kept in a barrel, which swings from the outhanging rock of the mountains overhanging the Straits of Magellan, opposite Terra del Fuego. Every ship opens it to place letters in or take them out. Every ship undertakes to forward all letters in it that it is possible for them to transmit. It hangs there by its iron chain, beaten and battered by the winds and storm, but no locked and barred office on land is more secure. It is not in the track of mail robbers.

KLEPTOMANIA. In a letter from New York to the Boston Journal, "Burleigh" writes "Among the strange moral developments is that of kleptomania. It rages among well to-do women, who have plenty of time and much money. One of our large notion stores has a crowd from 11 to 3 People go to the store partly to buy and partly to see the crowd. Among the company can be seen the wife of a well known banker. The lady comes in daily. She is closely watched She fills her pockets with spools, pins, needles, bits of ribbons and trinkets. The bill is sent to her husband, the amount being guessed at. She has no need of the articles, and need not steal if she had. A well-known man of Brooklyn—a man of property and quite an exhorter in religious meetings, has the disease bad. He will take his basket on his arm, walk down one of the avenues, slyly chuck in a potato, a beet, an onion or an apple into his basket as he passes long. In due time his bill comes in."

TO A FELLOW-INVALID.

LINES TO [illegible] RAWSON, BANGOR HOUSE.

BY DAVID BARKER.

'Tis many a long, eventful year
Since first we met, my brother,
And many a word of kindly cheer
We've had with one another

They say 'tis moons since you've been off—
Yes, thus the Whig is talking,—
That Fashion's old disease,—the gout,—
Has kept you, Judge, from walking

I fain would bear gout's mystic pain
Which science fails to unravel,
Give me but level, balanced brain,
Good mental legs for travel

What's gout to shattered nerve, pray tell,
This telegraph—a new one
For fiends fresh from the fires of hell,
To send some message through on?

What shall be done by you and me
As Judge you ought to know it,
One cannot fathom each decree,
One merely born a poet

Though nerve, and heart and brain be weak,
Though never born a fighter,
I will not bare the unbruised cheek
And turn it to the smiter,

For every brother man would write
At once upon my forehead,
That I have strove both day and night
To quench the cheating coward

But each true, manly act defend,
By word or sign or letter,
And tried to make each foe my friend,
By no skill, but the better.

[illegible] strange, nerveless, legless fix,
Halo, Judge, and tell me whether
I might not pay for us to mix
Our brains and legs together

BREAKING HORSES FOR FARM WORK.—A writer in the London Mark Lane Express, in discussing the points to be considered in breeding horses for farm labor, says "The head should be comely, but not so small as that of a running horse, as it enables the animal to throw more weight into the collar. He should be broad and flat in the forehead, have moist, well set on ears, prominent placed eyes, thin eyelids large nostrils, neat neck, and deep toward the chest, not very high in the withers, with upright shoulders, forearm broad flat bone below the knee rather short pasterns good round feet—not too flat or too upright, plenty of hoof, clean leg, straight back with plenty of loins, and ribs well arched. He should be long on the back rib and long in quarter, the haunches should be strong the hip well down, the hock joint broad and for a breeder no animal should be used that is not free from curb, bog or bone spavin, splint or side bones. Horses with well developed muscles and a good constitution are easy to keep, and can endure a great deal of fatigue.

The Official Report (N. Y.) shows that the ratio of the number of policies upon which claims were paid in all companies has advanced from 10.9 per thousand in 1872, to 11.9 in 1873. In the former year the American Popular lost 4.7, and in the latter 3.7 per thousand.

The rate of death claims and of expenses to total income, and to total amount at risk, increasing rather than diminishing in the case of the aggregate companies, being in both years very large, contrast strongly with the low ratio of this Company and its growing prosperity. In the light of these facts, its low premium rates are more than justified in a practical sense, as, in a scientific view, they are both equitable and secure.

Before the era of inflation in life insurance, the old plan companies are shown by the reports to have done a comparatively small business, and it was doubtless, with the large premiums they required, comparatively safe. Some, commencing later, "pushed business" from the first, with a vehemence that created amazement, and already, in common with the older companies, are beginning to experience the reaction that must have been expected from the abnormal and indiscreet inflation.

The comparatively small (but really large for the kind) number of policies issued by this Company is one of the best evidences of its security—the rigid adherence to well established scientific principles, in the rating of risks, giving low premiums only to superior lives, and thus making the Company attractive to few others. It would surprise those not acquainted with the working of our plan, to know the number of applications received and the amount of labor and care expended in their examination and rating, all of which is just so much to the advantage of superior risks

It will also be noticed that large business is not a guarantee of safety, for if the mortality is high, indicating a want of care or skill in selection, the larger the business, the more safety is imperiled, and while small business may not show care, large business does show carelessness. We could have shown a very large business from the start if we had been indifferent to the kind But the kind is the question, and more work is necessary in doing the amount of our kind of business than would do four times as much that would be unprofitable to both the assured and to the Company.

The increase of our business during the past year, is as wholesome and encouraging as our losses are small.

Our ratio of increase has been

In amount of Assurance,	116.48

The ratio of all N. Y. Co.'s has been
